A MESSAGE FROM PREMIER DOUG FORD

Warm greetings to everyone observing Green Sports Day.

Sports have the power to unite neighbourhoods, cities, and even countries. They are an important tool for promoting health and fitness, building community and fostering excellence. I strongly believe that the global appeal of sport can be harnessed in ways that have a positive impact on our world and our society.

Green Sports Day is a terrific opportunity for all of us to reflect on the effects our sporting habits have on our environment, and to consider how we can modify these habits to achieve a greener, more sustainable future.

Thank you to the Canada Games Council for organizing this initiative, and to all the coaches, trainers, athletes and members of the community participating in Green Sports Day events across the country. Know that you are making a real difference in our relationship to our environment.

Have a memorable Green Sports Day!
